

Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you "this is as good as" or "the same as Pearlline." IT'S FALSE—Pearline is never peddled, and if your grocer sends you something in place of Pearlline, be honest—send it back. 430 JAMES PYLE, N. Y. York

SATURDAY, FEB 2 1895

Governor Morton signed, yesterday, the bill changing Newburgh's elections from the spring to general election day in the fall. The city will save a few hundred dollars in election expenses but has delivered itself, bound hand and foot, to the Republican bosses, who engineered the change.

Less than fifty dollars having been contributed for a memorial of the late James G. Blaine, it is now proposed that the State of Maine shall erect a monument to his memory. Blaine was by all odds Maine's greatest man and while living had a strong hold on its people, yet dead he seems to have been forgotten more quickly than most men who have filled so large a place in the affairs of State and nation.

The Eagle figures up the net loss to Brooklyn by the strike on the trolley roads at $2,020,680. Crediting the railroad companies with all that was saved in operating expenses their direct losses were $131,800, and strikers lost in wages $138,811. The cost of the militia was not less than $120,000. Claims for damages which the county will have to pay will not be less than $200,000, while the indirect losses sustained by merchants, contractors, manufacturers and others through the interruption of transportation are estimated at close to $1,500,000.

In view of the almost unanimous consensus of judgment, here in the East, in favor of gold as the only safe measure of values, as the only sound basis for banking and currency, most people will be surprised to know that the yellow metal narrowly escaped demonetization by France in 1873, and that such a step was, at the time, seriously contemplated by leading financiers in this country. M. Chevallier led the movement for demonetization in France. Owing to his great reputation as a political economist he had a large following, and for a time the fate of gold trembled in the balance. M. Chevallier argued that the gold fields of California and Australia were inexhaustible, and he predicted the time was not distant when the metal would be worth 10 more per ton than iron. The world's safety, he said, from financial confusion and chaos, was in making silver the universal measure of values. The agitation went on and on, and there is no telling what would have resulted had it not been that in 1873 on the gold output of California and Australia showed steadily diminishing volume. All this seems wondrous now that gold is apparently so firmly established king of metals; and yet, who can say but that the next forty years may dethrone the yellow and again enthroned the white metal. The amazing increased gold output of Colorado and the lusher fields of South Africa certainly offer grounds for wildest conjecture as to the world's future metallic standard of values.

MIDDLETOWN'S "BOGIE MAN."

Truant Officer Penny on Duty—What His Duties Are

Truant Officer Joseph B. Penny entered upon the discharge of his duties yesterday. His first work will be to take a complete census of all children between the ages of eight and sixteen years. It is his duty to ascertain every child he sees on the streets during school hours and ascertain the cause of their non-attendance. If they are absent without the knowledge or consent of their parents the parents are warned to compel their attendance. For a second offense, the children will be gathered in and taken to the school room in which they pursue their studies. If they are caught the third time they will be taken to the truant school, where their attendance will be closely watched, and any violation of the rules will be met with severe punishment.

Scott, formerly of this city, furnished occasion for a suit for divorce was arrested, yesterday, in Brooklyn, and held in $5,000 bail in Mr. Scott's suit to recover $25,000 damages for the alienation of his wife's affections. He gave bail promptly and was released.

A "JOKE" ON THE BACHELORS.

An Unknown Sneak sprinkles the Dancing Floor with Red Pepper.

The Bachelors' Social Club's hop, which was held at the Assembly Rooms, last evening, was a social success, as usual, but the pleasure of the evening was considerably marred by the action of some miscreant, who, prior to the dance, placed a large quantity of red pepper on the floor. Dancing had hardly begun before the entire party were either coughing or sneezing from the effects of the pepper. There is no clue to the perpetrator of the "joke."

EX-SHERIFF WINNER ACQUITTED.

Ex-Sheriff Benjamin W. Winner, whose trial on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses has been in progress at Monticello since Wednesday, was acquitted, this morning. The complainant in the case was James Schoonmaker, a town of Liberty farmer and drover, who alleged that Mr. Winner secured his endorsement to notes that he had to pay, by misstatements as to his (Winner's) financial condition.

—A sleigh load of Walton boys coasting on Snepard hill in that village, Wednesday, had a very narrow escape, dashing across the O. and W. track just ahead of the Utica flyer.

—Operatives on the O. and W. bring word that 30° below zero was what thermometers recorded at Livingston Manor, in the early hours yesterday morning.

—For all the "never better" sleighing, there is a poor market for sleighs,—beautiful though the latest styles are, and cheaper than ever. Pocketbooks are padlocked, nowadays.

—Local horseshoers are longing for a thaw and a freeze. The soft cushion of snow affords such secure footing for horses that there is no occasion for use of sharpened shoes. But the smiths will have their innings by and by.

—The bear and woodchuck saw no shadows when they came out of their winter quarters at noon, to-day, and according to the old saying, warm and fair weather, good for bears, woodchucks and humans, will prevail for the next forty days.

—A townsman laid in some bushels of unusually good oats, whereupon his groom accosted him: "Sir, am I to feed the new oats to all the horses?" "Why to be sure," was the reply. "Why do you ask?" "Well, sir, they are so fine I think you would only be feeding them to the choice of the stable."

DR SUTCLIFFE'S APPOINTMENT HELD UP.

Notified Not to Report for Duty—Said to Be Charged With Burning President Cleveland in Effigy.

The Argus mentioned, a few weeks ago, that Dr. John S. Sutcliffe, of this city, who recently passed the necessary Civil Service examination, had been notified by the Department of Agriculture of his appointment as United States Veterinary Inspector, and had been ordered to report for duty at the Chicago stock yards, on Feb. 1st.

A few days ago, however, Dr. Sutcliffe was notified by the Department of Agriculture that his services would not be required. He went at once to Washington and there learned that his appointment had been revoked because of information furnished the department of offensive partisanship in the past, the specific charge being the allegation that in the parade with which the Republicans celebrated their victory in 1888, he was one of those who carried through the streets and burned an effigy of Grover Cleveland.

Dr. Sutcliffe is still in Washington endeavoring to convince the Department of Agriculture that a little incident like the burning of the President in effigy ought not to be taken account of by a Democratic administration, in the case of a Republican who has passed a Civil Service examination. It is also understood that he denies that the effigy was that of President Cleveland, asserting that it was a "free trade baby," and that it was burned by an unknown small boy, who applied a torch to it.

The outcome of the matter will be awaited with considerable interest by Democrats here and elsewhere, who are anxious to know if, under a Democratic administration, a successful Civil Service examination, is to condone and blot out any and all excesses of partisanship on the part of a Republican.

A DREAM OF BEAUTY.

Carriage Maker Brewster's Bride Believed to Be the Daughter of a Craigville Farmer.

There is every reason for believing that Miss R. S. Schwartz, who recently became the bride of J. B. Brewster, the rich old carriage manufacturer of New York, is the daughter of John Schwartz, a market gardener who lived near Craigville, ten years or more ago. At that time the young woman frequently accompanied her father when he drove to Goshen with loads of produce, and her striking beauty attracted the attention of all who saw her. Her hair is said to have had in it glints of gold and burnished copper, her complexion was a marvel of pink and white, on which sun and wind had no effect, her features were classic in their regularity, yet dimpling into piquancy when she smiled, and her form was as perfect as ever sculptor dreamed of. Those who remember her say she was one of nature's masterpieces, whose beauty would win for her the heart of any man, no matter how old.

HON. M. D. STIVERS DEAD.

Stricken Without a Moment's Warning in the Times Office, This Afternoon.
Hon. M. D. Stivers died at 3 o'clock, this afternoon, while sitting in a chair in the editorial room of the Times office.

He had entered the office but a few minutes before, having come from the banking house of the Orange County Trust Company.

He was apparently in his usual health and in the best of spirits, and was chatting pleasantly with his two sons and others in the office. Suddenly he ceased talking and his head fell forward.

He was laid upon a hastily improvised couch and messengers dispatched for physicians. Dr. Hardenburg arrived in a few moments, but his services were of no avail, life being extinct.

The cause of death is supposed to have been heart disease, from which Mr. Stivers is known to have been afflicted for a number of years. He had only recently recovered from an attack of grip, and this insidious disease may have aggravated his heart trouble.

OBITUARY.

Samuel Hunter Bodine.

The condition of Mr. S. H. Bodine for the past few days has been such that his death has been expected at any time, and, therefore, when the grim messenger came at 8:20, last night, his family and friends were in a measure prepared for the announcement, and the shock was not as great as it would otherwise have been, for "Hunt" Bodine, as he was familiarly called, had as many friends as any man in Middletown; friends whom he won by kindness of heart, and a genial and jovial disposition and kept by his unwavering loyalty to them. Every body knew him and always expected and received a kind recognition and a pleasant word whenever they met him.

Mr. Bodine was born in the village of Montgomery, Aug. 4th, 1823. He was a son of Adam and Harriet Bodine. He learned the trade of iron moulder with E. P. Wheeler and Jonah France, who conducted a foundry at Montgomery. About the time his apprenticeship was completed, Messrs. Wheeler and France formed a co-partnership with E. M. Madden and the firm built the old Orange County Furnace, which until a few years ago, stood on the corner of King and Foundry streets. That was in the year, 1842, and Mr. Bodine came to the then small village of Middletown with his employers. The first melt of metal was made in the furnace by Mr. Bodine on February 22nd, 1843. He remained in the employ of this firm until 1854, when he removed to Newton, N. J., where, in partnership with Jas. W. Lane, he built an iron foundry which they conducted for a number of years, when he withdrew from the firm and with the Messrs. Neldon erected another foundry which the firm conducted in connection with a hardware store and tin shop until 1870, when he disposed of his interests and returned to Middletown. He took the position of foreman in the Orange County Furnace, which he held until fourteen years ago when he engaged in the coal business on Depot street. He carried on this business on his own account until July 1st, 1889, when he formed a partnership with John A. Wallace, under the firm name of Bodine & Wallace. This firm was dissolved January 1st, 1893, and the firm of Bodine & Co., composed of Mr. Bodine, L. S. Wilson and J. D. Wood was formed and continued up to the present time.

Deceased was married in New York city, Jan. 4th, 1848, to Miss B. W. McLaughlin, who, with two daughters, Misses Fannie and Addie, survive him. He is also survived by one brother, William, who lives in Michigan, and one sister, Mrs. L. G. Spring, of Brooklyn.

Mr. Bodine always took an active interest in politics and in municipal affairs, but was not a seeker after office, and frequently declined nominations for local offices, but was prevailed upon to accept the appointment of Superintendent of Streets for one year in 1883, but delegated the duties of the office to the late J. A. Sweazy.

He was not identified with any societies, but has for several years been an honorary member of Monhagen Hose Company, being one of the few persons who have not served as active firemen to receive such an honor.

Few men ever had more, warmer and truer friends than Mr. Bodine and few men were ever more deserving of friendship. Ready at any time to do a kindly act, generous to a fault, speaking no ill of any one, he was one of the most likable of men. He was a good husband and a kind and indulgent father, and to the very best of his ability did his whole duty in every relation of life.

The funeral will be held at his late residence on Benton avenue, at 2:30 p. m., Monday. Messrs. O. R. Fuller and Ira L. Case have been selected by the family to act as pall bearers,

Mrs. Jane C. Courtwright.

Mrs. Jane Courtwright died in Port Jervis, Thursday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, at the residence of daughter, Mrs. Emmet Quick, No. 149 Jersey avenue. Death was the result of old age, she having been ninety-five years old.

Mrs. Courtwright was a former resident of Coleville. Her husband, John Courtwright, died thirty years ago. She is survived by three sons and two daughters, Ira and John Courtwright, of Libertyville; Enoch Courtwright, of Coleville; Mrs. P. VanGorden, of Libertyville, and Mrs. Emmet Quick, of Port Jervis.

Mrs. Eliza Cole.

Mrs. Eliza Cole, widow of the late D. B. Cole, died at 11:45 a. m., today, at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. James A. Clark, No. 89 Highland avenue, of general debility resulting from old age. She had been in feeble health for several months and recently has failed rapidly.

She was a daughter of Abram Haring and Letitia Fardon and was born Jan. 24th, 1825, at Closter, N. J. She was married on Feb. 12th, 1847, to D. B. Cole, who died in 1877. After her marriage she resided at Piermont until 1866, when the family removed to this city and resided for many years on Monhagen avenue. For several years she has made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Clark.

Mrs. Cole was the mother of four daughters, Jennie, wife of D. C. Blauvelt, now residing in Nyack; Letitia, widow of William Fardon, of Closter, N. J.; Emma, wife of James A. Clark, of this city. Ida, wife of Thos. K. DeWitt, died in September, 1890.

She is survived by one brother, Abram Haring, of Rockland county, and one sister, Mrs. Geo. B. King, of Kingsbridge, N. Y.

The funeral will take place at the residence of James A. Clark, 89 Highland avenue, at 2 p. m., Tuesday. The body will be buried beside that of her husband in Hillside Cemetery.

Funeral of Wm. H. Johnson.

The funeral of Wm. H. Johnson was held at Grace Church at 2 o'clock, this afternoon, and was attended by a large number of friends. The Episcopal burial service was read by Rector Evans.

The remains were interred in Hillside Cemetery.

to have people daily tell us that our Pepsin Essence has helped them. To give the names of half the people would be excellent evidence but without the names you'll have to take our word for it and, after all, what better evidence do you want than that, with our open business record of 25 years back of it? Our word for it that our Pepsin Essence has been found of great value for Acute Indigestion and Chronic Dyspepsia in a multitude of cases, as customers daily tell us. Why, it's so good that certain people are —, but that's another story —, only be sure that our name is on the label. 2 sizes, 25 cents and 75 cents.

UNTIL DEATH.

Make me no vows of constancy, my friend,
To love me, though I live, the whole life long.
And love me no more when I am dead and gone.
—Nay, it were rash and wrong.

It would not make me sleep more peacefully
That I should be at death's door, and that I live
For my poor sake. What have I that last for me
But to be dead and gone?

Come not upon a stone when I am dead,
The grave which is my home, my home, my home,
To mourn me, for I am dead and gone.
—But speak them while I live.

Remember the heavy burden on my head
To skirt away the sunshine and the dew.
Let small blossoms grow there, and let grasses
Wave, and raindrops fall through.

Then will I put many fairer and more gay
Than I have, trust me, then cannot more find
One who will love and care for me night and day
With a more single mind.

Forget me when I die! The violets
Above my rest will blossom blue, blue,
Nor miss my fragrance, for Nature's self forgets,
But while I live be true!

A SALABLE BOOK.

When I had finished my cursory examination of the manuscript, I laid it down on the table, and shaking my head said:

"I am sorry to disappoint you, old fellow, but I should most strongly advise you not to try any publisher with this story. I don't think that there is the slightest chance of its being accepted anywhere. At the same time I must say that for a first attempt it does you great credit, and certainly if you stick to your work you will soon be able to produce something that will be successful."

I tell you that that book is going to be the biggest success of the year," answered Martin Ross, in whose rooms in the Middle Temple we were sitting.

We had been at Oxford together and had gone down about the same time, I to take my place on a newspaper and Ross to try his fortune in the city. Although undoubtedly sharp, he had succeeded in nothing, and I had been under the impression that he had emigrated, when that afternoon I met him in the Strand, and he told me that he had written a novel which was to make his fortune.

It was at his invitation that I had accompanied him home to look over the manuscript in question.

It was a very poor story, slovenly and amateurish in style and vulgar beyond criticism. I felt sorry to have to discourage him, but it was only friendly on my part to do so. I accordingly repeated, in answer to his remark, "I am quite certain that no London publisher would undertake that book, though I am sorry to say so."

He laughed and said: "I never said that I should offer it to any publisher. I am not such a fool. I want all the profits myself. Why should I put the lion's share of them into a publisher's pockets? There are thousands in that book, and I'm going to publish it myself—that is to say, at my own expense—and I shall put it into the hands of one of those firms who publish on commission."

"My dear fellow," I cried, "do let yourself be guided by me and don't spend any money on printing that book. I don't believe that a hundred copies of it would be sold."

"No, not a hundred," he answered confidently. "A hundred thousand is nearer the mark, though I expect the sale to go much higher than that. I tell you that I am to make my fortune out of that book; that I have struck oil this time, and richly."

"But the style," I urged.
"Oh, I know that the style isn't up to much," he answered. "I'm no hand at literature, and, as a matter of fact, I took the least possible trouble over writing this book. I dashed it off on the typewriter in less than a week. But it isn't on its merits as a work of art that this book is going to sell."

"Well, as what, then?" I asked.
"Why does So-and-so's pill and So-and-so's soap sell? Because they are well advertised. Well, my book's going to be well advertised and accordingly will sell."

"I fear you will have to spend a very large sum of money to advertise that book into success," I remarked.

"I know exactly what I shall have to spend. Sixpence halfpenny per dozen copies, or a little over a halfpenny on each copy. Each halfpenny and fraction so spent will sell a copy. The book will be produced as cheaply as possible, and I calculate the cost to me at about two-pence. Say that, with the advertising, each copy cost me three-pence, which is above the mark, you may calculate what my profits will be on a sale of even 100,000 copies."

"You have hit on some novel mode of advertising the book, then?"
"You bet! The whole reason of my confidence in my success of this shocker is there."

"Would you mind telling what your plan is?"
"Well, if you won't mind, I'd rather not," he answered. "You see, I can't afford to give away the idea. You might talk about it, and then some other fellow might snap it up. Don't be offended and just watch the sales of 'A Disgrace to Society'—that is the title I have decided upon. They will make you open your eyes."

"Very well, just as you please," I said rather coldly, rising to take my departure.

I did not see Ross again for some weeks, for, though I called once or twice at his rooms in the Temple, I always found his clock stopped. One day the inner door happened to be open, and through the better still I could see into his sitting room. There were six young ladies seated at a large table busily writing, and in front of each was a high pile of cards. Two large baskets, filled with similar cards, stood on the floor.

Business taking me abroad, I was not present at the birth of the book on which my friend had built such hopes, and, though I looked in the London papers, I could find neither advertisement nor mention of it. I was therefore rather surprised when, on landing at Dover on

"For Charity Suffereh Long"

Mrs. Laura C. Phoenix, Milwaukee, Wis.

"Matron of a Benevolent Home and knowing the good Dr. Miles' Nervine has done me, my wish to help others, overcome my dislike for the publicity, this letter may give me. In Nov. and Dec., 1893, The inmates had the 'La Grippe,' and I was one of the first. Resuming duty too soon, with the care of so many sick, I did not regain my health, and in a month I became so debilitated and nervous from sleeplessness and the drafts made on my vitality, that it was a question if I could go on. A dear friend advised me to try Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine.

I took 2 bottles and am happy to say, I am in better health than ever. I still continue its use as a nerve food, as my work is very trying. A letter addressed to Milwaukee, Wis., will reach me."

June 6, 1894. Mrs. LAURA C. PHOENIX.

Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold on a positive guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. All druggists sell it at 25c. bottles for 50c. or it will be sent prepaid, on receipt of price by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

my return home, I saw quite a heap of the shilling volumes of "A Disgrace to Society" on the bookstall at the station. At the Victoria bookstall I saw another heap of the same book, and on asking the clerk how this book was selling he answered, "Little but brisk." Driving home, I saw it well in evidence at various bookshops. It was evidently a big success, and I wondered rather enviously how Ross had managed to obtain this for so very worthless a production. I had purchased a copy at Victoria, and looking over it in the cab had had my first opinion of it confirmed. It Cannot touch food prepared with lard, and yet all such people can eat freely of food shortened with, or cooked (even fried) in COTTOLENE. For dyspepsia, and those with delicate digestive powers, Cottolelene is invaluable. Having all the good features of lard, with none of its unhealthfulness, its wonderful success is easily explained. The genuine always has trade mark—steer's head in cotton-plant wreath—on every pack.

What A Comfort

it is to feel that the appetite can be indulged and gratified without paying dearly for it afterwards. Dyspepsia is so common a complaint that many people look upon it as one of the necessary evils of life. But it is not. It can be avoided if you have it. It can be CURED if you have it. The first trouble comes from indigestion. Help Nature at once! Do not let the disease get its first hold upon you!

You should have in the house a bottle of

and use it at once if your food distresses you. It may save you much suffering, but remember also that it is

The Kind that Cures

MR. H. B. DAY, of 256 West 22d St., NEW YORK CITY writes us: "I can recommend DANA'S Sarsaparilla to all who cannot keep their food on their stomachs. Food made me sick, and after each meal I would vomit it up. DANA'S CURED me, and I am sure will CURE others in the same fix."

ERIE REORGANIZATION.

No Scheme on Foot for a Reorganization in the Interest of First Mortgage Bondholders.

The item published in this paper, yesterday, concerning a proposed reorganization of the Erie, in the interest of the first mortgage bondholders, which was condensed from a long article in the columns of a contemporary, proves to have been full of inaccuracies.

The prior lien bonds and the first consolidated mortgage bonds are not in default. The only bonds on which interest is not being paid are the second consolidated mortgage, about $35,000,000 in amount, which mature in 1909, and on these the road has not defaulted so as to make the foreclosure of the bonds possible, since, under the terms of the mortgage, if one coupon, six months' interest, is paid in three years, the principal does not mature. The only plan of Erie reorganization that has been definitely proposed is that of the directors, which recognized the rights of stockholders and of the holders of junior securities, and though this plan was withdrawn for amendment and modification in some of its details, it will be brought forward again and will undoubtedly be carried through successfully.

SOME PATERSON OFFICIALS.

A Policeman Gets Five Years for Grand Larceny and a Justice of the Peace Arrested for Perjury.

The residents of Paterson were astounded a short time ago when John Powers, a police officer, was arrested on a charge of stealing two wagon loads of goods from the stores of merchants. Yesterday, when arraigned for trial, he pleaded guilty and threw himself on the mercy of the court. He was sentenced to five years at hard labor in Trenton.

Yesterday morning the good people of Paterson were given another shock. Justice of the Peace Hubbschmidt was arrested and held for the Grand Jury on a charge of perjury.

NEWBURY'S PASSENGERS ON THE ELBE.

Two Letters from Nitschky—A Remark Made by Herman Recalled.

Two letters were received in Newburgh, yesterday, from Henry Nitschky which confirm the fears of friends that he and Celim S. Herman went down in the Elbe.

One of the letters was to his brother, Miss Gertrude Sharpe, and the other to a male friend. In the letter he said he would leave Bremen on Jan. 28th, the date on which the Elbe sailed.

Young Herman at the solicitation of friends sat for his photograph just before leaving home. He remarked as he consented to do so: "They must think I will never come back."

A QUARREL BETWEEN NEIGHBORS

Fulton Street Families to Air Their Differences in Recorder's Court.

Mrs. Jennie O'Loughlin caused a warrant to be issued for the arrest of Mrs. Annie Reagan, on a charge of disorderly conduct, and also a warrant for the latter's daughter, Mamie, upon a charge of assault in the third degree. The case was set down for trial, this morning, but the husband of the complainant produced a physician's certificate to the effect that his wife was too ill to appear in court and press the charge. The case was therefore adjourned until Tuesday next. All of the parties are residents of Fulton street, and it is evident that a fierce neighborly quarrel is on.

Newburgh's Common Council Makes Terms with the Board of Education.

After a conference with the Board of Education, Newburgh's Common Council has agreed to so change the proposed charter amendments as to allow the Board of Education to spend an amount equal to three-fourths of one per cent. on the assessed valuation of the city, exclusive of State money and of the cost of new buildings and additions, without going before the Board of Estimate. As there is no likelihood that the limit of expenditure will be reached in years the Board of Education is entirely satisfied.

A Port Jervis Man Arrested in This City.

James Atkins, a resident of Port Jervis, was arrested in this city, yesterday, on a warrant issued in Port Jervis, upon complaint of his wife, who charges him with non-support. Officer Tyrrell, who made the arrest, turned his man over to a Port Jervis official and Atkins was taken to Port Jervis on the Orange County Express last night.

FEBRUARY

Month When 'Tis Easiest to Regain Health

Get Strong Before Debilitating Spring Comes Again.

Feed the Worn Out Brain With Paine's Celery Compound.

Let Changing Season Find System in Health.

Take the Great Remedy That Makes People Well.

A perfectly healthy body has its parts completely nourished and its nerves constantly refreshed and stored with energy from the vigorous blood that all the time bathes it.

But to do this important work of conveying sufficient nutrition to the tissues, the blood must be kept rich and full of red corpuscles.

The only trouble with two-thirds of the men and women whom the coming spring will claim for its victims is a pitiful lack of proper nerve food. What these weak, nervous people need is a more general feeding and storing of their blood and tissues with fresh, highly vitalized material. There is undoubtedly nothing that can compare with Prof. Phelps' remarkable discovery, Paine's celery compound, for restoring health and strength.

The great body of physicians throughout the United States, England and Canada believe profoundly in it, and prescribe it in all cases of nervous weakness and debility. In preparing this greatest of all nerve tonics and blood renewers, the eminent professor of Dartmouth College, Edward E. Phelps, M. D., LL. D. had in mind the countless men and women with brains overworked and nerves unstrung by worry and lack of proper nutrition.

Clerks, their employers, lawyers, doctors, mothers of families, hard working men and women in every state and country, and hosts of brain workers—the most intellectual part of the community—are to-day taking Paine's celery compound, with the happiest results, to relieve themselves of rheumatism, neuralgia, nervous exhaustion, dyspepsia, sleeplessness and low spirits.

Paine's celery compound cures diseases of the important organs of digestion, circulation and excretion, by purifying the blood, by regulating the entire nervous system and supplying the body with strength to combat disease.

Paine's celery compound makes people well. It takes away all the tremor and irritability from the nerves, and gives that calm, strong feeling of assured health that invariably accompanies a perfectly well-nourished bodily system.

Get rid of languor, clear the muddy, unhealthy skin, plump out the body and get back to a normal vigorous condition with Paine's celery compound, and begin now.

THE UNIONVILLE SILK MILL.

Loss on Stock and Machinery Adjusted but That on the Building Still Unsettled.

From our Unionville correspondent.

The Unionville Silk Manufacturing Co. has commenced cleaning out the rubbish from its burned factory in order that a temporary roof may be put over the second floor, so that some of the weavers may go to work.

The insurance companies have settled on the stock, machinery and fixtures, but the loss on the building has not yet been adjusted. The total insurance on the building and contents was about $45,000 and was placed in eleven different companies.

It is the intention of the company to rebuild the factory as soon as the insurance companies settle, and as soon as possible the looms will be put in order and full operation resumed. Our citizens will be glad, indeed, to see the factory again under way, for the village already feels the effects of the shut down.

An Expensive Neck Yoke.

George Raser, who was arrested by Constable Faulkner, a few days ago, charged with having stolen a neck yoke from a Unionville man, was tried in that village, found guilty, and paid a fine of $5 for his offense.

Testimony of a Nurse and Midwife.

PAVILION, N. Y., May 21, 1885.—"I have had great experience as a nurse and midwife for the last five or six years, and I have never found anything so good as Gilmore's Aromatic Wine; have found it excellent for young ladies arriving at maturity, and also for ladies in the decline or change of life. I recommend it to the afflicted."

OVER THE SHAWANGUNKS.

WHAT OUR NEIGHBORS IN SULLIVAN COUNTY ARE DOING.

All the News from All Parts of the County—Many Matters of Interest Condensed from our Sullivan Exchange and Contributed by Wide-Awake Correspondents.

—Mark H. Gardner, a respected citizen of Loch Sheldrake, died there Jan. 20th, aged seventy-five years.

—Every morning for the past week, thermometers at Willowemoc have stood at from 10° to 22° below zero.

—The vestry of St. John's Church, Monticello, has asked Rev. H. M. Ladd to accept the rectorship of the church.

—The steam saw mill of Alfred Smith, on the Floyd Pelton farm, near Monticello, was destroyed by fire Jan. 22.

—Ed Gebhart, an employe of Engelman's cigar factory, stepped on a piece of ice while descending the steps of the Monticello Presbyterian Church, Sunday night, and fell, breaking his leg.

—Miss Curtis, who has been lately elected School Commissioner in Monticello, is a daughter of the late William H. Curtis, formerly Sheriff of Sullivan county.

—Richard DeKay, father of Dr. R. A. DeKay, of Livingston Manor, and Dr. W. H. DeKay, of Hurleyville, died at his home in White Lake, Sunday, aged seventy-nine years.

—The Palen house, at Rockland, caught fire early Wednesday morning. Rockland Hose Company was promptly on hand and soon extinguished the blaze. The damage done does not exceed $200.

—After being closed four months for repairs, the M. E. Church in Livingston Manor was opened, Sunday, and shows a wonderful improvement. The changes made were entirely on the inside and consisted in the removal of the old gallery and putting in of new ceiling, windows, seats, carpets, lamps and wainscoting. The walls re-papered and the wood work grained. These repairs have cost $650, which has all been subscribed. It is the intention now to build the tower and put in a bell in the spring.

—The records of the Sullivan County Clerk's Office show a large increase in the matter of conveying during the past year. During the year 1893 there were recorded 1,407 pages of deeds, that being about the average number; but during the past year 2,149 pages of deeds were recorded, an increase of nearly one-third more than in 1893, and Miss Josephine Pendell recorded 1,950 pages of deeds, and 283 pages of election matter, making a total of 2,233 pages recorded by her within the past eleven months, besides some miscellaneous copying which would probably bring it up to 2,275 pages.—Watchman.

—The indictment against the Town Board of Neversink for violation of the election laws, in having neglected to destroy certain ballots after town meeting, last year, was disposed of Tuesday, by Judge Smith, who sustained the demurrer of the defendants, saying he could find no law under which they could be held, and they were accordingly discharged.

How Does It Help Ellenville?

Twenty-two sewing machines, driven by steam power, have been set up in Ellenville's new clothing factory and the work of manufacturing is to be begun at once. Twenty-five Hungarians and Bohemians have been brought up from New York to run the machines.

AGONIZING ECZEMA

Feet Sore and Thumbs Useless. Doctors and Medicine no Avail. Terrible Suffering Cured in Four Weeks by CUTICURA.

I have a boy, fifteen years old, who had the eczema so offensive that I could not stay in the room with him. The poor boy suffered terribly. His feet were terribly sore, he could not wear any shoes, and had therefore to stay at home from school. When he put on dry stockings in the morning, they would in one hour be saturated with moisture, and very offensive even in the coldest weather. The disease began to spread over his body, especially his hands and fingers. The thumbs on both his hands became stiff and as useless as two withered sticks of wood. It would be useless for me to try to tell the suffering this boy endured. I took him to two different doctors, both gave him lots of medicine, but all to no use. He grew worse. I therefore desisted of ever having him cured. One day I saw in the paper a notice of CUTICURA. I went right away to the drug store and bought them. However, I used them according to directions, and today I say truthfully to all the world, that my son is cured, thank God and thank the discoverers of CUTICURA. The cure took him four weeks as sound as a gold dollar.
